

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 10:55 AM

Comments Received :

This change serves no meaningful purpose for cisgender individuals while actively harming transgender people by invalidating their identities and making it harder for them to obtain accurate documentation. It's a regressive move that disregards lived experiences and medical realities in favor of enforcing an exclusionary and outdated definition of sex. As a taxpayer of the United States, I object vociferously.