This is unconstitutional, and a violation of the enjoinder put on the State by the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado in the Zzyym v. Blinken case (formerly Zzyym v. Pompeo, Zzyym v. Tillerson, and Zzyym v. Kerry). If the State is no longer abiding by these decisions, isn't it a very dangerous and slippery slope eroding the public's trust in "the rule of law"? To say nothing of how confusing this will make things for intersex people, among the estimated 5.6 million who stand to be impacted by a new gender marker rule. Don't we have better things to spend our money on?
