

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 11:14 AM

Comments Received :

Why do you need to display the applicant's 'biological sex at birth'? Some people appear different from their biological sex at birth due to hormones, surgery, and dressing differently. If you require people who look like men who were born female, and vice versa, to display that on their passport, it's just going to confuse everyone. It's not a medical document, it's a practical one used to identify an individual.