Having an incorrect marker on a passport will also further delay airport and port security lines and screenings, put individuals in harms away, and can lead to invasive searches that are unnecessary.

Furthermore, these forms not only are unconstitutional, they are in violation of the injunction put on State by the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado in the Zzyym v. Blinken case (formerly Zzyym v. Pompeo, Zzyym v. Tillerson, and Zzyym v. Kerry).

If legality is not a primary concern, the cost in putting forth these discriminatory papers should be. The cost to taxpayers is staggering for a change that will not aid anyone in obtaining, using, or owning a passport.
