

Author Full Name : Ian Quigley

Received Date : 02/20/2025 11:08 AM

Comments Received :

If this removes the ability for non cisgendered individuals to put their identifier of choice, it's probably unconstitutional as per Bostock v. Clayton County. Please don't do that, it'll just cost Federal resources to defend in court and probably lose.