

Author Full Name : MICHAEL CROMICH

Received Date : 02/20/2025 11:02 AM

Comments Received :

I implore you to reconsider the recent changes made for changing gender markers on a US Passport. This only serves to discriminate against transgender people, and ignores stuff like intersex people. Not to mention that this is a clear case of government overreach, and is just a massive waste of time, money and resources. How would you even check to make sure that they have the "proper" gender marker at the airport? Are you going to just have everyone stripped at the front desk?