

Author Full Name : L Boutet

Received Date : 02/20/2025 11:43 AM

Comments Received :

Reducing sex/gender markers to a binary is inaccurate and does not increase the safety or well-being of any person. Intersex, non-binary and Trans people deserve the same rights as every other citizen, and this includes access to government services and identification documents. This will create unnecessary friction and stress while providing no tangible benefit to anyone.