

Author Full Name : Scarlet Meyer

Received Date : 02/20/2025 12:08 PM

Comments Received :

I believe we should allow trans, nonbinary and intersex people to choose the gender that best fits their identity and that the gender markers not be relegated to assigned sex at birth. There are many reasons I believe this is important but primarily passports are user for identification. If someone is presenting as a gender thats not listed on their passport its only going to cause confusion, hold up lines and make it more difficult for our country to run efficiently.