

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 12:08 PM

Comments Received :

I would like to recommend that the biological sex at birth requirement not be included in the passport application form. There are many reasons why this information could be inaccurate or outdated, and the relevance for traveling is not apparent. Administrative expenses associated with implementing this change do not justify any theoretical value-add in including it.