

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/20/2025 12:33 PMComments Received :

It is imperative that we allow transgender people, non-binary people, intersex people, and others to use a gender marker that aligns with their gender identity. In refusing to do so, these people are put into unsafe situations and are placed under additional scrutiny that could prevent them from travel or living their lives. Refusing an X gender marker ignores the existence of multiple genders, as well as intersex people, who biologically do not align with a M or F marker.