Gender information should not even be on passports -- it serves no ID function, as you can't tell anything about sex or gender just by looking at someone's face. (It was only added in 1971 for bad reasons.) If it is on passports, which it should not be, it should be easy to change.

This misbegotten proposal would violate the rights of intersex people and violate the court orders from the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado in the Zzyym v. Blinken case (formerly Zzyym v. Pompeo, Zzyym v. Tillerson, and Zzyym v. Kerry).

This is simply causing trouble for no reason. Don't do it.
