

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/20/2025 01:31 PMComments Received :

The Department of State should not force an applicant to submit their sex assigned at birth. There's no legitimate purpose. The purpose of the passport is to identify who a person currently is not who they once were. There is zero reason for the DOS to demand this other than blatant bigotry.