

Author Full Name : Max K

Received Date : 02/20/2025 01:21 PM

Comments Received :

This change seems both unnecessary and invasive. The executive order seems discriminatory, and the only effect that this has as far as passports is to open up vulnerable populations to scrutiny based on their characteristics. I think this change is less valuable than a field displaying what a passport holder weighed at birth, and considerably more harmful. Please do not change this field from gender to biological sex at birth.