

Author Full Name : Susanne Onning

Received Date : 02/20/2025 01:59 PM

Comments Received :

One day, future historian researchers will look at these bills, and the comments, and marvel that the slide happened so quickly from a functioning society to the regime that ignores the consensus of biologists, doctors, sociologists, and psychologists that trans people exist. People should and need to be able to have their gender on their passports. It's been allowed, and by disallowing it now it causes even greater harm to these individuals in particular, and to society in general.