

Author Full Name : Virginia Kane

Received Date : 02/20/2025 02:05 PM

Comments Received :

Limiting passport applications to two genders will exclude intersex and transgender individuals from exercising their right to travel freely. Transgender and intersex people exist, always have, and deserve to be represented accurately on their citizenship documents. They deserve to travel without fear.