

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 02:03 PM

Comments Received :

The proposed change will not reduce the amount of crimes committed against women. It will only result in increased discrimination against individuals who do not fit the fully subjective standards of gender presentation held by whoever is assessing the passport at the moment. In addition to doing nothing to reduce harm to women, it will increase the amount of harm done to innocent members of society, directly countering the spirit of the rule it is based on.