

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 02:20 PM

Comments Received :

To allow for accurate and consistent documentation, passports and federal identification documents should designate "gender" rather than "sex" and should include options for "M," "F," and "X" which the applicant should select through self-attestation of gender identity. Attempts to police gender identity and expression cause confusion, risk of harm, inconsistency in documentation, and are otherwise detrimental to health and safety.