

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/20/2025 03:29 PMComments Received :

I come to you as a concerned citizen and ask that you do not change the gender marker availability on US passports. It's a gross breach of the average American's personal freedom to force them to edit their gender markers on their passports. What are passport gender markers even for, realistically? Why does an airport need to know the gender of a passenger?