The requirement that the sex listed on a passport match the sex assigned at birth is dehumanizing to those for whom the sex assigned does not match their gender identity. Intentionally singling out people to treat differently based upon what should be a protected characteristic is a morally bankrupt decision. It is no different to not accepting passport applications from black folks or women because of racism or misogyny. I don't want to see my government systematically erase me and my people. This is literally the beginnings of genocide and I will not stand idly by.
