

Author Full Name : Joshua Bruckner

Received Date : 02/20/2025 04:08 PM

Comments Received :

The passport application process needs to be gender-inclusive and mindful of citizens of all gender identities. Individuals should be able to have their passport reflect their gender, whether it is male, female, nonbinary, or other.

Forcing trans and nonbinary people to have passports with markers that do not align with their gender is harmful and marks them for discrimination.

We must have trans-inclusive policies applied to passports and federal/state identification.

Thank you,
Joshua Bruckner