

Author Full Name : Alix Heintzman

Received Date : 02/20/2025 04:05 PM

Comments Received :

This set of proposed changes to the US passport process are discriminatory, cruel, and blatantly unconstitutional, serving no function other than to restrict the civil rights of trans Americans. The president's anti-trans executive orders have already been challenged in the courts, and even military guidance has recommended no changes to existing policies. Please reconsider this regulatory change, which wastes time and money to target a small minority of American passport-holders.