I think it's horrendous for you to try to control people in such a way. Them having a different name, or gender on their information does nothing to you and you making a big deal of it is extremely immature. It's sad to see so many large groups are against trans people and we are already facing erasure everywhere. Why do you just add yourself to the list of places we can't just live as the people we are? Why must you come in and try to tell the people of what is supposed to be the land of the free that they can't be very free? It causes no one any kind of pain or cost them anything to not put us into a box like we are mentally ill. Life is already hard enough for Transgender people. Why do you have to make it harder simply because you are spineless. When has it ever been a problem now or before? I think it's sad to see you like many others make such a decision on the people's behalf instead of just staying out of it. Why must you try to single us out when all we are trying to do is live our lives authentically? I hope you make a good decision and realize we are not in any way a threat to anyone, and will reverse your previous discrimination against us trans people. It's disgusting you would think it's ok to do so in the first place.
