

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 04:23 PM

Comments Received :

Changes of this nature are fundamentally unconstitutional in that they deny an individual their right to identity with little to no reason as to why such a change would or should be necessary. Any policies going forward should make allowances for the diverse range of expression and identity of the 21st century.