I'm a psychotherapist. I see clients. I diagnose and treat issues. And the amount of harm I see this causing trans people is inexcusable.

As an American I have a constitutional right to dignity and the pursuit of my happiness. An F or M on a birth certificate causes no harm if done to reflect gender identity. In fact, NOT doing so interferes with our right to our bodily autonomy and happiness by compounding gender dysphoria's traumas every time the trans person has to use their passport.

Trans people have always existed. Trans people always will. Adding to the weight of dysphoria will harm the trans population.

"We the People" includes trans Americans. Otherwise it is just "Some of the People." Not quite the same ring to it eh?
