

Author Full Name : Harper Doyle

Received Date : 02/20/2025 05:16 PM

Comments Received :

Transgender people face harrassment, sexual assault, and accusations of fraud by transportation security at airports and other points of international travel. Allowing individuals to self select sex on their passport is not about satiating or validating the feelings of so-called "mentally-ill" people, it is a matter of practical, physical safety. The government has no right to tell people that they ought to be subjected to violence by government employees simply because of what they look like.