

Author Full Name : Sam Reddig

Received Date : 02/20/2025 05:51 PM

Comments Received :

Requiring people to identify their biological sex at birth without including options for intersex individuals is a denial of fact. These proposed changes enforce gender ideology on the American public and disregard biological reality. Additionally these changes make it easier for transgender individuals to be targeted by hostile parties abroad, putting their safety at risk.