

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 05:51 PM

Comments Received :

I would like these forms to still have an X marker (intersex folks exist biologically at birth). People can change their gender and name via a court order/supporting documents - not just relying on a birth certificate. As a woman, I changed my name when I took my husband's on all documents except my birth certificate. I never had a need to change that. Not even to get a passport. I had other documentation.