The fact that you are preventing trans people from living their own lives is un-american and positively fascist. Trans people are HUMAN people--not an ideology nor an agenda. Trans people are not a threat. Trans people deserve to have the same rights as everyone else. The government is attacking trans people by taking away their rights, and erasing their history. Trans people have built and created so many things, and you are showing that you wish to eradicate everything about them. Trans people are killing themselves over these actions, and their blood is on your hands. The government is no better than Nazi Germany, and will end up like Nazi Germany--non-existent.

Not everyone has to go by the name they were given at birth. In fact, many people who aren't trans go by names that they were not given at birth--have you all not heard of nicknames? Have you all forgotten that people's names change on a frequent basis? Whether it be marriage, their own protection, or just because they want to, NO ONE has the right to tell fully conscious adults what they can or cannot do with their names--or their bodies. The government has no right to take away healthcare for a select group (not that it was good anyways), as it will affect everyone in some way, shape, or form. It is clear what the government is doing--grasping for control to create a very strict way to live according to a small group's ideology.

The government is failing the american citizens. The government is acting in a severely unconstitutional way, and the man who called himself "king" (Donald Trump) deserves to be impeached. He deserves to be blocked at every turn as he grabs for power. America will never have nor accept a king. May I remind you all of the american revolution? There will be another one. I am ashamed to be an american, and I know that if the time comes, I and many other people will fight and resist. We are many, and you, in those polished offices, are the few. We demand inclusive policies. We demand protections for those who are marginalized. America is the land of the free for EVERYONE, not just cisgender, heterosexual white men. Whether you are black, brown, indigenous, white, cisgender, transgender, nonbinary, young, lesbian, gay, bisexual, disabled, or physically-abled, you should have the same rights as the most powerful, and the most powerful must have the same rights as those below them. If the balance is unequal and favors the most powerful, we are not a democracy. We are an authoritarian, bastard society that deserves everything that comes to us.
