The new policy is a waste of time and resources that seems clearly crafted to terrorize a group of people who make up an infinitesimal proportion of the population. I'm not interested in the Department of Homeland Security making my fellow citizens' lives more difficult for absolutely no gains to our homeland security. I have yet to see an example of someone transitioning just to commit crimes or fraud. But I have seen plenty of gleeful fearmongering that someone who used to have a different gender marker is the downfall of the US, and it just isn't true. I'm calling on my country to do better and be better, to respect the people who have fought and died for freedom and democracy in this country and to respect people's individual privacy. Additionally, there are other countries that issue a neutral gender marker on their passports — and not just for trans people.
