

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/20/2025 06:47 PMComments Received :

I would like to say that this law would not make me feel safer traveling, even though my gender identity matches my assigned sex at birth. I have many transgender friends, and they all deserve to feel comfortable and safe while they're traveling. I believe that this law would just make airports more complicated for everyone.