

Author Full Name : Susan Landis

Received Date : 02/20/2025 07:36 PM

Comments Received :

The idea that one must apply for a passport and use "sex assigned at birth" rather than their gender is ridiculous. Many Americans do not identify with the sex that was assigned at birth. There are also people who are intersex. We have been through this before and the gender markers are constitutional and all that is really needed. This is just harmful to a great number of Americans.