

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/20/2025 07:51 PMComments Received :

There have already been court cases establishing that passports must be available for people that match their gender. Biologically speaking, humans do not fit neatly into two boxes. Intersex people and others who are not male or female should not be forced into an artificial choice of M/F when that is not who they are. Policy and forms should follow the human experience and biology, not the other way around. See attached information on the Zzyym v. Blinkin case.