

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 07:51 PM

Comments Received :

Refusing to recognize or allow changes to gender markers on passports is in direct opposition to the will and safety of the American people. If we can change our names to reflect changes in our lives, we should also be able to be recognized as the way we have already been legally and medically recognized. This will only serve to put vulnerable people in danger because a handful of individuals are ignorant and hateful of people different from them.