

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/20/2025 07:44 PMComments Received :

This policy is not only extremely offensive but massively harmful to not only trans people but also cis people who have had their gender mistakenly entered as the incorrect gender. This only serves as a way to dehumanize and discriminate against an already marginalized group of people. There is really zero reason for gender to be displayed at all on our passports. Most other countries do not put gender on their passports. Why are we spending tax dollars on something so wasteful and discriminatory.