

Author Full Name : Julia Tallant

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:18 PM

Comments Received :

Sex assigned at birth is not a relevant marker for millions of transgender people living in the US. Requiring sex assigned at birth to be listed on a passport rather than someone's gender could out someone as transgender when traveling internationally (or domestically), posing risk to their personal safety. I oppose this change.