

Author Full Name : Megan Hudson

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:04 PM

Comments Received :

People making application for passports should be able to use the 'x' gender marker. It doesn't hurt anyone, or make our country in anyway less safe. A passport simply identifies a person and their citizenship - it was never intended to be a way to identify gender. Limiting people to the biological sex markers is simply a way to harass and humiliate a small population of Americans who just want to live their lives and aren't hurting anyone.