

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:38 PM

Comments Received :

This revision does not make sense and would make screening more difficult for customs officers. Gender is perceived, but sex is often not when one is meeting a customs agent at the border. Are we going to start doing genitalia inspections? Chromosome testing to prove their sex?

This is flippant legislative nonsense and should be thrown out.