

Author Full Name : Douglas LarkinReceived Date : 02/20/2025 08:24 PMComments Received :

It is important to have the option for people who do not identify as male or female. There are more than two genders because biologically speaking, one in every 1000 births is an intersexed individuals. People are also born infertile. I do not understand the demand to conform to just two genders on passports. Who does it harm?