

Author Full Name : Josie Brechner

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:23 PM

Comments Received :

Not allowing trans people to change their names on passports is fundamentally a chilling of civil rights and an offense to calling America a country of freedom. Trans people are going nowhere in this country or elsewhere and we demand that our government not just accurately reflect the reality of its population but do due diligence to serve and support all of its citizens.