

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:47 PM

Comments Received :

The policies concerning transgender people are NOT ok. They have the right to exist in this country. But if you want to dismiss them then you should consider dismissing their tax monies since the literal premise of taxation without representation is our nation's code.

Furthermore, Human rights aren't negotiable. Perhaps you should check into that.

They should be able to identify how they want to and on every identifying document they want it on. Please stop this madness.