

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 08:45 PM

Comments Received :

These revisions are not complying with the listed executive order and should be further reviewed. The executive order states that sex must be reflective of the sex at conception, not at birth. Until this revision reflects a measurement of one's sex at conception, then it is not properly following science and the EO!