

Author Full Name : Caitlin Kuschel

Received Date : 02/20/2025 09:13 PM

Comments Received :

Transgender individuals should be allowed to renew their passports with a gender marker that aligns with their identity because it is a fundamental human right to have official documentation reflect their true self, promoting dignity, safety, and freedom of movement, while denying this access can lead to significant discrimination and barriers when traveling internationally.