Regardless of who is elected, now or in the future, no one can tell me who I am by decree. I know who I am: a confident, beautiful and strong woman, whether or not the current government thinks an M or F or X gender marker is on my passport or other documents. What's next? A yellow star for Jews again? Stop trying to make the lives of so few such a plaything. Process our requests just like any other citizen and be done with it.
