There are so many things that I could say. Hate filled antics about trump and erasing trans folk. But I'm sure there are many many other people doing just that. Instead, Ill just say that the current representation of trans folk as a whole is propaganda made by conservatives that have never met a transgender person in real life.

Transitioning is a scary process. It's scary to come out. It's scary to know that someone in a maga hat could beat me to death if they see me and not even have the media cover it. It's a harrowing experience by itself to wake up everyday, look in the mirror and hate my entire existence, and have no choice in the matter. It's scary to know that I can't even flee the country without subjecting myself to throwing my dignity away.

Not being able to have a passport that reflects myself, means walking through security checks and having someone know what's in my pants. Why is it such a big deal? Why are conservatives so obsessed with someone else's genitalia? What does knowing it even do? It's... Disgusting. It's embarrassing.

How come it's so backwards?
