

Author Full Name : Patrice Speed

Received Date : 02/20/2025 11:37 PM

Comments Received :

We should not be rolling back the ability for citizens to have their preferred information, name and gender marker on their passport. These options serve a valuable role to all Americans and removing it seeks to punish people for no reason. Changing how it already exists is harmful and waste of time. Keep preferred gender markers and names.