

Author Full Name : Noelle Matonis

Received Date : 02/20/2025 11:26 PM

Comments Received :

I support transgender people having passports with their legal name and current gender marker. People should be allowed to update/change their name/gender marker. The State Dept should not strip someone of their already updated name/gender marker. Legal names should be honored and respected for anyone who's changed it legally. Not allowing them to have their current legal name and gender on the passports would be wrong, unconstitutional, and it wouldn't even reflect the truth.