

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/20/2025 11:21 PM

Comments Received :

The government should let people put whatever gender marker they want on their passport, or remove gender markers from passports entirely. Making a fuss about requiring additional documentation for gender markers of any kind is unnecessary bureaucracy and a waste of both applicants' and government time.