

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 02:39 AM

Comments Received :

The inability to change one's passport gender marker does nothing but cause inconvenience and dismay for all involved. If an intersex individual such as I is dressed in a way that causes me to not look like an old photo taken, i could be detained for an hour and miss my flight. Also this horribly affects transgender individuals, as if their passport doesn't match their gender marker, they could be detained. It's a mockery of the transportation department.