

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 12:22 AM

Comments Received :

I believe that all people should have full control over their personal identification, and that all of their data should be processed efficiently. As someone with an easily misspelled name, I have long had to correct people or clarify details when presenting my official documentation, and allowing people to properly apply for and have their name changes and data processed minimizes a great deal of personal distress.