

Author Full Name : Katelynn Stanley

Received Date : 02/21/2025 06:37 AM

Comments Received :

I strongly disagree with the decision to change gender to sex on the passport application. As a document intended to identify a person, by making the document match their biological sex, it is no longer a useful piece of information as it does not match the individuals gender identity and presentation.

In addition, as someone who is biologically female and gender is female, this does not protect me in the slightest and only does more harm than good to my surrounding community.